REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While the prior art is replete with various forms of core particles coated with liquid, visco-elastic-liquid and/or solid coating materials, the prior art does not teach or suggest the instantly-claimed invention comprising the following components: (a) a core particle comprising an enzyme, and (b) a coating with a solid coating material and a gas phase component. As applicant states and refers to the specification in the latest response, a gas phase component is "understood as any gas or mixture of gases," versus simply a gas-generating component which may act to produce gas at some point upon environmental prompting. It is also known from the art that coated particles with gas-generating components in the coating material, are destroyed upon generation of the gas.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
